Arild Raaheim, University of Bergen

Best practice and new digital tools for assessment at NHH

Are you thinking of changing your assessment methods for your courses, or want to learn more about various alternative assessment forms? At this seminar we will discuss different assessment methods and show some of the new digital tools that might help us in developing alternative assessment methods at NHH.

Arild describes 40 alternative assessment methods that he would like to share with us.
